BASEL IS HEATING UP FOR MIAMI SINGLES

Celebrate the One Year Anniversary of Perchance at Shore Club

[MIAMI BEACH, FL, NOVEMBER 2019] - Perchance is bringing together the best of Miami's singles scene and celebrating Art Basel December 6th at the Shore Club from 7pm-11pm. The event will feature top shelf liquor, world-class entertainment with beats from DJ Stacks, art by Eddy Bogear and Miami's most eligible bachelors and bachelorettes. Singles and art-lovers alike will enjoy a great party and even better company to kick off the weekend! The official afterparty will be hosted at Foxhole for Art After Dark.

"Perchance launched at Art Basel last year and we have grown tremendously since our launch. We're excited to be hosting this party in appreciation of our current and future Miami users. We're happy to host this event at one of Miami's best venues, The Shore Club, and can't wait to see you there!" - Dave Gottesmann, Perchance CEO Perchance is the app that turns the one that got away into THE ONE! It lets users go back in time and gives them a second chance at reconnecting with someone they have shared a passing moment with. The app locates other users that were in your immediate vicinity at the same time as you. When two users confirm a missed connection, the Perchance app gives them the ability to coordinate a time and place to meet. With a few taps of our app you'll be grabbing a drink with your date tonight!
